Code Ninjas - Ramsey, NJ

January 2021 to Present

While teaching the "Create" program students come in and follow a curriculum at their own pace. It is my job to supervise the students and answer whatever questions they may have as well as clarifying what certain code does when they are confused.

During the summer I also taught summer camps which were more structured and I would teach a group of 5-10 students a given curriculum, while also adding in my own activities tailored to the group.
